A native speaker has said that the second usage can be heard in a colloquial speech, but it is incorrect. ... structure - Does "save time" go with "on something" and "Ving" to ... Jun 9, 2024 · "saving time on (something)" means shaving time from it, not completely eliminating it. "I can save time on commuting if I take the earlier train, which is an express with fewer stops". But "save time (doing something)" can mean the same, but also to eliminate it. "I can save time doing laundry if I join a nudist colony". word usage - "Support to do" or "Support doing" - English ... May 22, 2022 · When you're describing something that a product does, "support" is too weak or too vague. You can use it, however, when you describe something that a product tolerates or accommodates, rather than actively does. For example, while you can say: Our product supports repairing corrupt Outlook PST files. 'advise of' vs 'advise on' vs 'advise + some other preposition' If later on, that bites them in the ass, we can say 'We told you so'; hopefully that will be enough to get us out of trouble." "We advise on " is something a trusted advisor might say. It means "We provide good-intentioned advice about ". pronouns - "A little something something"? - English Language ... Aug 31, 2015 · This is about something as in " something something " and what I perceive to be variations thereof : (1) [word] something something [word] (2) [word] somethin' somethin' [word] (3) A little something something (4) A little somethin' somethin' (5) A little something Of course it's about something that is not known. My experience is that (1) and (2) are used when someone is trying to figure out ... Make + someone + something - English Language Learners ... Nov 6, 2020 · Is it correct to say?
