The Church Made Strange for the Nations Paul G. Doerksen, Karl Koop, 2011-09-22 Christians have sometimes professed that the church ought to be in the world but not of it, yet the meaning and significance of this conviction has continued to challenge and confound. In the context of persecution, Christians in the ancient world tended to distance themselves from the social and civic mainstream, while in the medieval and early modern periods, the church and secular authorities often worked in close relationship, sharing the role of shaping society. In a post-Christendom era, this latter arrangement has been heavily critiqued and largely dismantled, but there is no consensus in Christian thought as to what the alternative should be. The present collection of essays offers new perspectives on this subject matter, drawing on sometimes widely disparate interlocutors, ancient and modern, biblical and secular. Readers will find these essays challenging and thought-provoking.

Hostile Eyewitness Tyora Moody, 2015-04-01 Depressed because of complications of a head injury, Serena Manchester seeks solitude in the hometown she left almost twenty-five years before. Unknown to Serena, her hometown's landscape has changed and unseemly elements have seeped into the quaint Southern seaport town. One night Serena witnesses a gang-related crime. She thinks she recognizes one of the young men, but chooses not to identify him. What if her brain injury has altered her perceptions? Her estranged family has already reminded her why she left town in the first place. Drawing attention to herself and perhaps endangering her well-being is the last thing Serena needs. When tragedy strikes close to home, however, Serena can no longer keep her head in the sand. Serena feels responsible, and her reporter skills kick in. Much to the dismay of the local police, she decides to start her own investigation.

At the Foot of the Mountain Alla Renee Bozarth, 2000-06-09 TEXT FOR AUTHOR BIO: Like philosopher and teacher Joseph Campbell, Alla Bozarth explores life's mysteries through the power of myth and metaphor: the salmon; the great bear; the ocean; the phoenix; the chambered nautilus; the iris; the lotus. Above all is her mountain -Mt. Hood- her Medicine Woman -rising outside her window, always changing in mood and meaning. TEXT FOR BOOK DESCRIPTION: This remarkable work proves that a time of devastating change can result in magnificent growth and illumination. In these intensely personal and universal ponderings, Episcopal priest, author-poet, and therapist Alla Rene Bozarth relates the wrenching decisions that caused her to move from her exile in the Midwest back to Oregon, to her place at the foot of the mountain. She takes us through her grief at the death of her father and of her young husband, then shares her gradual healing through the creative process of writing this book. As she finds strengths to minister to herself, she ministers to us. In introducing us to her special places and symbols, her teachers, we are moved to discover our own healing metaphors for ourselves.

Here Am I, Lord, Send Me! S. Yvonne Hall, 2025-06-23 Here Am I, Lord, Send Me! will highlight my journey with the Lord as I endeavored to fulfill the calling of God upon my life. God called me to preach the Gospel of Jesus, the Christ, and it was a call that I couldn't evade, elude, or ignore. And so, in 1977, I answered the call with the words of the title of this work: Here Am I, Lord, Send Me! Throughout the paragraphs and pages of this book, there are revealed times of weakness and times of strength; times of poverty of my own spirit and times of power in the Holy Spirit. There are also times of trepidation and times of transparency, but through it all, in the words of the late Andre Crouch, I learned to trust in Jesus, I learned to trust in God. I have no regrets for having answered this call upon my life, and a multitude of blessings from Him who called me and from whom all blessings flow have followed me all the days of my life. For this, I am truly thankful.

Come Up Here! Connie Hunter-Urban, 2025-02-25 When through a dream Holy Spirit told the author that He wanted her to go higher in Him, she was confused. She had operated in the gifts of the Spirit since before she was a teenager. She still had many occasions when He gave her words or His power to help others. As she reflected on the dream and subsequent visions, Holy Spirit had another message: she was not even on the first step to higher. She decided to seek what He wanted her to do and how she could comply with His higher message. Thus began her journey to higher. She found much in the Bible, especially in Ezekiel, that would answer the many questions she had about what higher looked like. Much of her book includes Ezekiel's and others' experiences in going to a higher level in the Lord. She shares many of her supernatural occurrences during this journey. Readers interested in taking the limits off God are invited to join her on her journey. It has been a precious part of her life. She believes it will be so for others too.
