Waiting is Not Easy! Mo Willems, 2014 Piggie tells Gerald she has a surprise for him, but it is not there yet so Gerald must be patient.

Hey, Professor Robert Eidelberg, 2020-07-14 Hey, Professor / Email Received From Michael Two Weeks Into Our Distance-Learning Course I hope this email finds you well. Thank you for reaching out and expressing your concern. This transition has been a little of a challenge for me. I've been trying to adjust to feeling a lot more anxiety after being laid off from my job as a waiter and getting used to spending much more time at home, where I live with my brother, his wife, and their (quite rambunctious) three-year-old son. I am used to being able to do my coursework in the library or at cafes and I am still adjusting to having to do the majority of my work at home. As a result, I have fallen a little behind in my coursework.

Hey, Professor / Email Received From Patrick Five Weeks Into Our Distance-Learning Course Unfortunately the course assignments I completed for this session of distance learning are on my work computer. I have to go in to pick up some belongings, anyway, so I'll send the assignments by then. Sorry for the delay; my mom got sick and she's immunocompromised, so it has been a rough couple of days. I appreciate how accommodating you have been to our class in this trying time. The reading and thinking assignments you've created to make up the distance learning half of our course have both been a light in this time. I hope that reading our completed assignments brings you a similar light. Hello Professor Eidelberg / Email Received From Christina Six Weeks Into Our Distance-Learning Course I know that this is a lot to just unload in an email but I felt that I wanted you to understand why I have not been able to get to my work as productively as I'd like to ideally, as well as confide in you about my current mental and physical health. I have been sluggish, tired, unmotivated, lethargic, and plain struggling to do many tasks beyond existing from moment to moment. I am trying to research more resources for therapy, as I have neglected this for a few months...

Dear Professor Eidelberg / Email Received From Shanya After Seven Weeks of Distance-Learning Ends I'm glad to hear you have been doing well and keeping busy since our course ended. My family is doing great; we've been using this time to share some of our passions — one of mine, as you know, being writing — and the reception has been amazing. I can't wait to read and re-read our course's book on "Some Day: The Literature of Waiting." Also, I have recommended your other Hunter College humanities course, The Teacher and Student in Literature, to many friends — but ironically, also recommended that they wait a semester if forced to take the class online. Your courses are simply too magical to be minimized.

Some Day Robert Eidelberg, 2020-06-29 SOME DAY The Literature of Waiting A Creative Writing Course With Time on Its Hands Now wait. Now. Wait. You do it all the time. Time and time again. You're doing it right now: waiting on our every word. So here goes: before there was this book SOME DAY on writing creatively about a world of waiting, there was special topics Hunter College English course on "The Literature of Waiting" that featured a selection of novels, plays, and short stories by some rather famous world authors. But wait: even before that time-sensitive college course there were, well, the elevators—particularly the ones in the North Building of Hunter College of the City University of New York. Elevators that you always had to wait distressingly long for when they were apparently working and eternally long for when they were "out of service." There was even that infamous elevator repair sign. Picture it: a photoshopped female student with her right hand flat out in the stop-and-wait position, her compressed lips silently conveying that any wait on your part for an elevator to come would be entirely futile. And did we mention that the repair sign would inevitably remain up even after that elevator had been fixed? Now that made a certain sense since it was only a matter of time before the sign was, like a broken clock, accurate again. The Word of God Is Wisdom Rev. Harold E. Petersen, 2022-05-26 The books of wisdom in the Bible are filled with gems. I have personally been blessed by the wisdom of God revealed here. The Bible has been part of my life from early days. Church activity, home devotions, and personal reading and study continue to draw me into the Word of God. I was in high school when I was let to read the Bible through in a year. I continue to do this to this day. I marked special verses in each chapter. A few years ago, I committed to write a brief devotion on each of these verses. In my writing, I also included verses of hymns that are favorite and seem to speak to the subject of the devotional. The Bible contains the Word of the Lord God. Learning this wisdom leads to understanding that enables us to live a rich life of faith.

A Call Less Ordinary Rich Wilson, 2020-02-20 What is my calling? What is my purpose in life? And how do I pursue it once I know what it is? Rich Wilson, in A Call Less Ordinary, aims to help you answer those life changing questions. Embracing God's calling is not easy, but it is the most fulfilling thing you can do with your life. And yet, understanding God's call on our lives takes time. It can seem vague, often because we are looking in the wrong places. A Call Less Ordinary will give anyone wrestling with the question of whether or not God has a plan for them a deeper understanding of what it means to find your purpose in life. It will challenge and guide you to find new ways of using your passions for God, and give you encouragement and hope to embrace your calling and live a meaningful life. When Rich Wilson felt God calling him into student ministry, he had no idea what challenges, frustrations, hopes and aspirations would await him as he became movement leader of Fusion - a movement that equips students for Christian mission. In refusing to sugar coat some of life's darkest days, his storytelling and writing illuminates how the call and grace of God reaches deeper into our lives than we often dare to embrace. By drawing on both his story and the stories of other ordinary people following an extraordinary God, he offers guidance and advice for discovering our own calling, and finding ways to pursue it through adventure and adversity. A Call Less Ordinary is both practical and provocative, leaving you energised and expectant for how God is working now and for your future. Could it be that God is both calling and leading you into greater freedom and fulfilment today? Raw, honest and compelling - a timely and necessary message well-lived and beautifully written for this generation. Pete Greig

Everybody Wants to Win Marcus Gill, 2017-08-01 Same-day delivery works for packages, not for people. Defeat the lure of immediate gratification, avoid frustration, and embrace uninterrupted peace. In one way or another we are all waiting. Even those who seem to have it all are still waiting on something. There may be a young athlete who's waiting for his wildest dreams to come true. There may be a young lady waiting on an acceptance letter to a university. A married couple may be waiting to find out if they're giving birth to a boy or a girl. There may be an individual waiting for lab results from his most recent doctor's visit. We are all in the same boat. Waiting. Waiting for change. Waiting for answers. Waiting for healing. Waiting for things to get better. No matter how good life gets, every living human being will always be in need of something. With a thriving Facebook audience of over 1.5 million, Marcus Gill has become a respected source of encouragement for those who find themselves struggling in their waiting season. He encourages you to trust God's timing by helping you discover:

- Why God makes us wait
- Why we can trust His timing
- Why we must have a vision, goal, and plan while we wait
- Why we must worship to see breakthrough

The Bouncing Back Daily Devotional Vivian Cynthia, 2021-03-31 Life in general is comprised of a series of ups and downs. What life has taught me over the years is that whether one is experiencing either the upside or the downside of life, it is never permanent. Everything that we are faced with in this journey of life is just a season, and seasons have an expiry date. Nothing is permanent on this side of eternity, no matter how painful or how pleasant the season is I have learned that it passes. So, no matter what you are going through at the moment it shall come to pass in due season. But when the season pass you shall remain standing, especially if your life is anchored on a sure foundation of HOPE. As I typed this devotional day after day, the Lord impressed one thought on my mind, "You can Bounce Back" from any season. Never doubt the power of bouncing back. Resilience is in your DNA, you have been created to overcome and survive everything that life throws at you. In this Daily Devotional I pray that you find inspiration to Bounce Back from whatever life throws at you. Whether you choose to make it a morning or evening devotional I hope you are inspired. The Bounce back Daily Devotional will infuse your day or evening with a dose of inspiration.

Hitting the Wall David Payne, 2011 Hitting the Wall is an inevitable component of the passage of life and a necessary ingredient in the journey of faith. Each wall is unique and embraces such words as brokenness and pain. But each wall carries the potential of positive change in your life. When life stops working and you lie broken and confused at the wall, this book will open your heart to a profound hope in a loving, all-knowing God. Hitting the Wall will open up a new perspective that will empower you to begin to move forward again. There is usually no quick fix for the wall. Rather, you have to begin a slow, steady growth over it. This book will nourish that growth. Many words describe David Payne: Husband. Father. Grandparent. Pastor. Teacher. Historian. David brings with him thirty-four years of pastoral experience. He is the lead and founding pastor of The Campus, a growing multi-site church in Aurora, Ontario. He has pastored this same church for twenty-six years. David draws from his own personal journey to the wall. He recounts authentic stories of woundedness and recovery that will resonate with you. You will walk in the footsteps of biblical characters and vividly encounter their walls with them.

David draws from a lifetime of Bible study as well as extensive travel in biblical lands, studying the sites, people, and culture. He shares insights and perspective that will help you along your faith journey when you hit that inevitable wall. A must read. Thanks to David Payne for providing compassionate insight into the amazing ways God uses the walls of human failure and brokenness for His glory. Hitting the Wall will breathe grace and hope into the weary hearts of Christians who are immobilized with brokenness and confusion. -Amy Shelor, editor
