La Divina Commedia. Inferno Bianca Garavelli, 2009

The Inferno Dante, 2012-07-11 The epic grandeur of Dante's masterpiece has inspired readers for 700 years, and has entered the human imagination. But the further we move from the late medieval world of Dante, the more a rich understanding and enjoyment of the poem depends on knowledgeable guidance. Robert Hollander, a renowned scholar and master teacher of Dante, and Jean Hollander, an accomplished poet, have written a beautifully accurate and clear verse translation of the first volume of Dante's epic poem, the Divine Comedy. Featuring the original Italian text opposite the translation, this edition also offers an extensive and accessible introduction and generous commentaries that draw on centuries of scholarship as well as Robert Hollander's own decades of teaching and research. The Hollander translation is the new standard in English of this essential work of world literature.

Ulysses, Dante, and Other Stories Elena Lombardi, 2023-10-31 Ulysses, Dante, and Other Stories presents a unique form of creative scholarship. It employs Dante's late medieval take on Ulysses and his tragic pursuit of 'virtue and knowledge' as a prism that refracts an ancient myth of journey and return into a modern story of discovery and nostalgia. Working notes, fragments from Ulysses' many stories, personal memories, illuminations, and rewritings combine to form a new chain of narratives about the desire to create, the art of travelling, and the will of self-reinvention.

Primo Levi Lucie Banchouiha, 2006 As one of the best-known survivors of the concentration camps, Primo Levi's testimony to his experiences in Auschwitz is internationally recognised as one of the most significant works of the last century. This volume examines each of Levi's works in detail, assessing and analysing the influence of Levi's time in Auschwitz on his writing. It identifies a variety of thematic, temporal, stylistic and linguistic echoes of Levi's concentration camp testimony, and traces these echoes throughout his subsequent, apparently unrelated, work. The book provides original and fascinating insights into the works of this remarkable writer, giving readers a new understanding and perspective on the immense significance and the pervasive influence of the holocaust on Levi's creative output.

Wings of the Doves Elena Lombardi, 2012 The tragic love of Francesca da Rimini and Paolo Malatesta - a classic story of passion and death - revisited through the lenses of literature, philosophy, and theology.

The Undivine Comedy Teodolinda Barolini, 1992-10-30 Accepting Dante's prophetic truth claims on their own terms, Teodolinda Barolini proposes a detheologized reading as a global new approach to the Divine Comedy. Not aimed at excising theological concerns from Dante, this approach instead attempts to break out of the hermeneutic guidelines that Dante structured into his poem and that have resulted in theologized readings whose outcomes have been overdetermined by the poet. By detheologizing, the reader can emerge from this poet's hall of mirrors and discover the narrative techniques that enabled Dante to forge a true fiction. Foregrounding the formal exigencies that Dante masked as ideology, Barolini moves from the problems of beginning to those of closure, focusing always on the narrative journey. Her investigation--which treats such topics as the visionary and the poet, the One and the many, narrative and time--reveals some of the transgressive paths trodden by a master of mimesis, some of the ways in which Dante's poetic adventuring is indeed, according to his own lights, Ulyssean.

Primo Levi's Narratives of Embodiment Charlotte Ross, 2010-09-13 This innovative reading of Primo Levi's work offers the first sustained analysis in English of his representations of bodies and embodiment. Discussion spans the range of Levi's works — from testimony to journalism, from essays to science fiction stories — identifying and tracing multiple narratives of embodiment and disembodiment across his oeuvre. These narratives range from the abject, disembodied condition of prisoners in Auschwitz, to posthuman or cyborg individuals, whose bodies merge with technological devices. Levi's representations of bodies are explored in relation to theories of embodiment and posthumanism, bringing his work into new dialogue with critical discourses on these issues. Taking inspiration from Levi's definition of the human being as a constructor of containers, as well as from the recurring references to both material and metaphorical containing structures in his work, the book suggests that for Levi, embodiment involves constant negotiations of containment. He depicts the complex relationships between physical and social bodies, the material and the immaterial self, the conscious and unconscious subject, the organic and the technologically-enhanced body, engaging with evolving understandings of the boundaries of the body, the self, and the human.

Samuel Beckett and Europe Michela Bariselli, Niamh M. Bowe, William Davies, 2018-04-18 Drawing on the diverse critical debates of the 'Beckett and Europe' conference held in Reading, UK, in 2015, this volume brings together a selection of essays to offer an international response to the central question of what 'Europe' might mean for our understandings of the work of Samuel Beckett. Ranging from historical and archival work to the close interrogation of language and form, from the influences of various national literary traditions on Beckett's writing to his influence on the work of other writers and thinkers, this book examines the question of Europe from multiple vantage points so as to reflect the ways in which Beckett's oeuvre both challenges and enlivens his status as a 'European writer'. With a full introductory chapter examining the challenging implications of the term 'Europe' in the contemporary period, this volume treats Europe as a recognition of the multiple ways that Beckett's poetry, criticism, prose and drama invite new understandings of the role of history, culture and tradition in one of the most significant bodies of writing of the twentieth century.

Staging the Holocaust Claude Schumacher, 1998-09-24 'To portray the Holocaust, one has to create a work of art', says Claude Lanzmann, the director of Shoah. However, can the Holocaust be turned into theatre? Is it possible to portray on stage events that, by their monstrosity, defy human comprehension? These are the questions addressed by the playwrights and the scholars featured in this book. Their essays present and analyse plays performed in Israel, America, France, Italy, Poland and, of course, Germany. The style of presentation ranges from docudramas to avant-garde performances, from realistic impersonation of historical figures to provocative and nightmarish spectacles. The book is illustrated with original production photographs and some rare drawings and documents; it also contains an important descriptive bibliography of more than two hundred Holocaust plays.

Dante's Poets Teodolinda Barolini, 2014-07-14 By systematically analyzing Dante's attitudes toward the poets who appear throughout his texts, Teodolinda Barolini examines his beliefs about the limits and purposes of textuality and, most crucially, the relationship of textuality to truth. Originally published in 1984. The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

Dove sei vita. Matteo Gazzoli, 2021-12-30 L'opera si presenta tripartita: la prima sezione tratta la dimensione della sopravvivenza: al centro è posta la figura del consumatore; al contempo v'è tutto l'apparato tecnico-scientifico che costituisce l'altro potere che prende in carico la salute ed i corpi dei soggetti, i quali, quando si limitano a sopravvivere, come animali, si aggrappano solamente alla sopravvivenza; la seconda sezione concerne l'esistenza: l'esistenza mostra il proprio carattere nell'odierna società capitalistica tecno-finanziaria. L'uomo d'affari, l'imprenditore, l'uomo che si fa da sé è la figura di riferimento di questa seconda parte. Qui diventa decisiva la scelta del soggetto; La terza sezione riguarda la vita: qui v'è il tentativo di resistere al mundus e preservare e forse salvare dimensioni come l'arte, l'amore e la libertà nella loro forma più autentica e, appunto, vitale. La vita è ciò che accade: essa avviene e ne va del soggetto nella sua più intima essenza. La figura di riferimento di questa terza parte (che ho provato umilmente a trattare) è Gesù Cristo.

Con Dante in esilio Nicola Bultrini,2020-07-14 Con Dante in esilio rende testimonianza di una realtà storica che ha dell'incredibile: nei più terribili luoghi di sofferenza gli internati si sono ripetutamente e con vivissimo impegno rivolti all'arte, ma soprattutto alla poesia e in particolare alla Divina Commedia, autentica luce poetica che ha squarciato il buio di una prigionia asfissiante e che è stata letta con grande accanimento e conforto allo stesso tempo. Oggi, alla vigilia del settimo centenario della morte del Sommo poeta, Nicola Bultrini, poeta italiano tra i più raffinati e colti, ha messo insieme le testimonianze di quanti, italiani e no, letterati famosi (Guareschi o Gadda) o semplici prigionieri, si sono affidati a Dante per non vivere come bruti l'esperienza atroce della reclusione. Ne è scaturito un libro che contestualizza storicamente e materialmente le circostanze della frequentazione con la straordinaria ricchezza della Commedia in un percorso di testimonianze dirette su un testo capace di attualizzarsi qualunque sia l'inferno in cui venga letta.

Other Others Steven Shankman,2011-01-02 In literary and cultural studies today, the term the Other appears to have largely lost its moorings in the primacy of the intersubjective encounter, focusing rather on the social construction of the Other. For Emmanuel Levinas, in contrast, the Other is precisely that which eludes construction and categorization. In a study that ranges from literature of ancient China, Greece, and Israel to modern Egypt, Italy, West Africa, and America, Steven Shankman tests Levinas's ideas by reading literary works from outside the Judeo-Christian orbit for figurations equivalent to Levinas's notion of the Other. He also places ethics at the center of intercultural—or, in his words, transcultural—comparative literature. In contemporary literary and cultural studies, it is often assumed that culture has the last word. However, as Levinas insists—and as Shankman argues throughout this book—it is ethics that is the presupposition of all Culture, that is situated before Culture.
