

Giotto Crocifisso Santa Maria Novella

John Henderson

Giotto the Painter. Volume 1: Life Michael Viktor Schwarz, Pia Theis, 2023-04-17 Giotto (1334) is the first European artist about whom it is possible to write following the schema of life and work. The situation of the sources, however, is complicated: On Giotto's life, there are - on the one hand - biographical accounts from the mid-fourteenth century onwards that responded to various ideological requirements (patriotism, humanism, Renaissance ideology, cult of the artist); on the other, there is extensive documentary material from Giotto's lifetime, which seems to reflect less the biography of an artist than that of a bourgeois businessman resolutely climbing the social ladder. The present volume focuses on this second aspect of the Giotto figure's double life relating it to the form of existence of the pre-modern artist.

The Structural Conservation of Panel Paintings Kathleen Dardes, Andrea Rothe, 1998-10-29 This volume presents the proceedings of an international symposium organized by the Getty Conservation Institute and the J. Paul Getty Museum. The first conference of its kind in twenty years, the symposium assembled an international group of conservators of painted panels, and gave them the opportunity to discuss their philosophies and share their work methods. Illustrated in color throughout, this volume presents thirty-one papers grouped into four topic areas: Wood Science and Technology, History of Panel-Manufacturing Techniques, History of the Structural Conservation of Panel Paintings, and Current Approaches to the Structural Conservation of Panel Paintings.

A Discerning Eye: Essays on Early Italian Painting ,

A Critical and Historical Corpus of Florentine Painting Richard Offner, Miklós Boskovits, Klara Steinweg, Mina Gregori, Martina Ingendaay Rodio, 2001 This new volume proposes, in similar format but with recent photographs, illustrating the painting in their present state, the new edition of the book dedicated by Richard Offner in 1947 to the workshop of Bernardo Daddi, artist very much in demand in the first half of the 14th century. To some 70 pictures catalogued by Offner with entries which are now updated with new data on state and history as well as with bibliography, ten further, hitherto unpublished or little known items are given in this edition. The survey offered here makes the circle of Daddi, where several of chief figures of the Florentine painting in the second half of the Trecento were formed, one of the better known areas of the history of Italian painting of the Middle Age and early Renaissance.

A Critical and Historical Corpus of Florentine Painting Richard Offner, 2007

A Discerning Eye Richard Offner, Andrew Ladis, 1998 A Discerning Eye is an anthology of some of the finest and most lasting essays by a great critic-historian of Early Italian painting, Richard Offner. Its contents span the Florentine fourteenth century and thus compose a kind of portrait album of some of its most notable painters between the Gothic and Renaissance eras, from the Magdalen Master in the thirteenth century to Masaccio in the early fifteenth. Each essay contains insights that are as incisive, fresh, and evocative today as when they were first written. The essays are illustrated using Offner's original photographs supplemented by new or additional photographs when dictated by the material or when the reader might be better helped to see the relationship between Offner's analytical prose and a given image. This book reintroduces Offner and places him in the wider context of art-historical writing to reassess his work and underscore what his writings have to offer art historians working today. Three interpretive essays approach Offner from distinct but complementary perspectives: historiographical, philosophical, and biographical. Reassessments of such figures as Erwin Panofsky and Millard Meiss aid the ongoing debate about what art history is and how it ought to be practiced. The reader is asked to reconsider not merely the value but also the philosophical foundation of connoisseurship as a method of investigation and its compatibility with other methods.

The Fourteenth Century Richard Offner, 1956

Time Out Florence Editors of Time Out, 2011-12-27 Florence has the greatest collection of Renaissance art in the world, and a character list that reads like a Who's Who of the period's greatest artists and thinkers: Dante, Leonardo, Michaelangelo: not to mention the powerful families who financed their work - the Medici and the Strozzi. Evidence of their lasting influence abounds today, including the discovery of a Leonardo fresco beneath a painting by Vasari, and the unearthing of Michaelangelo's plans for a church facade. The city's challenge today is to manage the resultant tourist hordes; a new entrance to an enlarged Uffizi should double tourist numbers to the gallery, while a tramline is intended to reduce the city's traffic.

Facts and Artefacts Annette Hagedorn, Avinoam Šālēm, 2007-01-01 The scholarly search on the art of the object is of enduring interest and enjoys a new renaissance in the last few years. This book mainly explores the art and craft of Islamic artefacts and presents to the reader a diverse range of approaches. Despite this variety, in which also artefacts of the pre-Islamic period as well as 'orientalized' European artefacts of the modern era are included, there is an overarching theme - the linking of the interpretation of objects and their specific aesthetics to textual sources and the aim of setting them in historical and artistic context. In this impressive collection honouring the German scholar of Islamic art Jens Kroger on his 65th birthday, Avinoam Shalem and Annette Hagedorn bring together contributions from a highly distinguished group of scholars of Asiatic, Sasanian, Islamic as well as European art history. Unpublished artefacts and new interpretations are presented in this book.

The Mosaics of the Baptistery of Florence Miklós Boskovits,2007

St. Cecilia Master and his circle Richard Offner,1986

The Building Complex of Santa Maria Novella ,2004

Alle origini dell'arte nostra Alessio Monciatti,2010-07-31 Firenze martedì 27 aprile 1937. Seicento anni dopo la morte di Giotto le strette vie della città si riempiono di critici d'arte, di curiosi, di politici, di rappresentanti di organizzazioni fasciste in festa. Motivo di tanta esultanza, l'inaugurazione della Mostra giottesca e l'arrivo, per l'occasione, di un illustre ospite: re Vittorio Emanuele III. Quella di Firenze non è solo una grandiosa mostra temporanea che illustra le opere dell'artista di Vicchio, dei suoi precursori e seguaci, ma getta le basi per la creazione del mito di Giotto come artista capostipite e patriarca della pittura italiana, con l'intenzione di utilizzarlo ai fini della propaganda fascista. Dalla progettazione alla realizzazione, dall'intento propagandistico dei gerarchi alla difesa dell'accuratezza scientifica da parte dei critici, le vicende dell'esposizione si dipanano attraverso le cronache dell'epoca, guidando il lettore per le stanze degli Uffizi e svelando le oltre trecento opere in mostra e la portata sociale e storica dell'evento. Una vasta selezione di immagini corredo il testo e accompagna il lettore alla scoperta della mitica Giottesca del 1937.

Piety and Charity in Late Medieval Florence John Henderson,1997-05-15 Examines the complex relationships between religion, society and charity in private and public life in Florence - Development of confraternities.

Material Christianity Christopher Ocker,Susanna Elm,2020-02-26 This collection of essays offers a series of rigorously focused art-historical, historical, and philosophical studies that examine ways in which materiality has posed and still poses a religious and cultural problem. The volume examines the material agency of objects, artifacts, and environments: art, ritual, pilgrimage, food, and philosophy. It studies the variable senses" of materiality, the place of materiality in the formation of modern Western religion, and its role in Christianity's dialogue with non-Western religions. The essays present new interpretations of religious rites and outlooks through the focus on their material components. They also suggest how material engagement theory - a new movement in cultural anthropology and archeology - may shed light on the cultural history of Christianity in medieval and early modern Europe and the Americas. It thus fills an important lacuna in the study of western religion by highlighting the longue durée, from the Middle Ages to the Modern Period, of a current dilemma, namely the divide between materialistic and what might broadly be called hermeneutical or cultural-critical approaches to religion and human subjectivity.

A Critical and Historical Corpus of Florentine Painting: The fourteenth century. v. 1. The St. Cecilia Master and his circle Richard Offner, 2000

Boccaccio und die bildenden Künste Sebastian Schütze, Maria Antonietta Terzoli, 2024-08-19 The reception of Boccaccio's works began early on, throughout Europe. This is reflected impressively in the splendidly illuminated manuscripts of Filocolo, Filostrato and Teseida, De casibus virorum illustrium, De mulieribus claris, and The Decameron. The stories of The Decameron, an entertaining and profound universe illustrating the all-too-human, were depicted on wedding chests, and in panel paintings and wall frescoes. They were brought into the modern age primarily by Pier Paolo Pasolini's film re-enactment dating from 1971. This volume focuses on Boccaccio's drawings and the development of his portrait iconography, the illuminated manuscripts and their courtly patrons, and on the impact of The Decameron and its stories, which are so significant in art history and theory.
