I'll Love You Forever Rita Beggins, 2024-12-12 A true story of a Belfast boy who grew up in tough times. His father left the family home to find work elsewhere when he was 8 years old and two weeks before his fifth child was born. He never returned and only on a rare occasion did his wife receive any support from him. The family faced many hardships. It was 1942 and Britain was at war with Germany. They were to face food rationing and the bombing of the shipyards and so they were evacuated to the country away from the city and the dangers of war. Back in Belfast he attended a catholic school run by religious brothers. He had developed a stutter, and so school life was tough for him. When it was his turn to stand in front of the class to read, he knew that the minute he started to stutter he would be beaten. As a result, he played truant when he had one particular brother who delighted in humiliating him. It was less than half a dozen times in the space of a year and for this his mother was taken to court. It was decided that as she was raising her family as a single parent with no father in the home then it would be better for him and in his interests, to spend the final 3 years of his school life in a boy's home. He was 11 years old. When he left school at 14, the school leaving age at that time, he had no qualifications and there was very little work in the city. He found work attending the gardens in a local convent. The pay was minimal and with no prospects. When he was 18 he joined the RAF and hoped that at the end of his 2 years' service things would have improved with regard to work but there had been no change. With very few prospects of permanent work, he made the decision in the mid 1950s to leave his home country to seek a better life for himself in London. Our paths crossed shortly after, and we spent the next 63 years of our lives together. We married and raised a family and although the early years were tough, we got through them and our standard of life improved. He had permanent work with the LCC Parks Department and over the years through sheer hard work, climbed the ladder from a parks labourer to propagating in the greenhouses. He transferred to tree felling and by the end of his career he had reached the grade of arboriculturist. He never forgot the hard life his mother had trying to raise her family with very little income and was determined that his own family wouldn't suffer in the same way. His health started to fail in 2003 when he had a heart attack and over the following years, cancer of the larynx, vascular peripheral disease and eventually vascular dementia. As his main carer, I lived with that dementia 24/7 for 5 years. It was the hardest thing I've ever had to do as I watched him slowly leave me. I was exhausted both physically and mentally. It was soul destroying. Would I do it all again? In a heartbeat, he was the love of my life.

Memoirs of a First Lady C.D. Covington,2020-07-08 Precious memories, how they linger, and they do linger in Da'nessa Baker's thoughts. Travel with us on a journey with a small-town Christian girl raised in the South on good old-fashion Southern values. It's a lovely cherished story about love, hurt, betrayal, and yes, adultery. Da'nessa discovers imperfections with the church on upper levels of authority that many within the church never experience. She is one of the few selected by life to encounter such experiences. Come peep inside this exclusive world through her journals. By venturing there, you might experience a few secret memories of your past. As with Da'nessa, learn from those experiences that the Lord uses to test your character, and always remember to come out a better person.

The Game of Life Vanessa Lamar Barton,2007-07-30 The purpose of these works entitled: The Game of Life; is to bring entertainment and understanding to the world through the eyes of the author. To open the third eye of a population that has been looking through for restitution for life and stand up to obtain their purpose for being. When life deals you lemons, make lemonade (Author Unknown). Don't settle for lemon water and end up becoming the product of unfinished works on earth. My main goal is for my readers to build a strong determination to reach for their goals in life, and developed an understanding that in life; the only thing that stops you...Is, you.

Auf Wiedersehen, I Love You Forever Christine Aardema,2022-04-19 This is a story of my mom, her sisters, and their mother during and after World War II in Eastern Germany. They experienced incredible hardships, violent horrors around them, adversity, starvation, and more. Yet, they suffered and overcame their surroundings with grace and dignity, sometimes witnessing miracles and sacrifices from others on their behalf. Their desire for freedoms eventually brought them to America.

Blyss in Heaven, the Story Bill Vyers, 2009-09-04 My fourteen year old daughter had been dead 65 days. I spent the time in jail working on this book 20 hours a day. It was written in 14 days to honor my God and to remember my daughter. I was asking God why He allowed so many horrible things to happen to me. This book is about my child from before her birth to shortly after her death and is intended for the readers to fall in love with her. A cruel mother tried to erase me from all Blyss life, yet I include actual facts of our lives.

Ants in my Brain Sally-Ann Mowbray, 2025-05-01 ANTS IN MY BRAIN is a true story of a daughter's recovery from a serious acquired brain injury after being knocked down by a car whilst out running in London one morning in 2014. It's written from a mothers perspective. Rosie's journey starts at the side of the Durnsford Road, South London where she was knocked down, then to St Georges Hospital in Tooting. It continues onto The Wolfson neuro rehabilitation unit at Queen Marys Hospital, Putney and progresses to Charmouth in Dorset before Rosie eventually returns to London. Thought-provoking and light-hearted, it aims to have the reader laughing, crying and questioning. It has a real connection with life today and how a family copes with that 'curveball' thrown at them out of the blue. It will take the reader through the different stages of brain injury recovery and is entwined with the reality of day-to-day life. It incorporates heartfelt passages from mother to daughter at different stages and is interspersed at poignant points with lyrics about recovery from a current folk/punk singer-songwriter (permission agreed with Frank Turner and Xtra Mile recordings). This inspirational book aims to show how a serious injury to a family member can have knock on effects to others close to them and how love and support can make the difference to a person's recovery from a life changing accident. It also proves how our brains have amazing powers to heal themselves and how remaining positive and hopeful can pull us through those dark times in our lives. It could be helpful to brain injury survivors, their families and friends and many others going through trauma and challenging times of any sort. It may also be helpful to professionals and students, both medical and therapeutic, as it gives a positive insight into NHS critical care to community care, told through the eyes of someone outside of these professions. It is largely based in St Georges hospital, Tooting a well-known London hospital due to the TV series '24 hours in A and E' which could make it an appealing read for followers of this programme. It also references West Dorset which is a popular destination for holiday makers with its glorious countryside and seascapes.

Babies Come from Glasgow Carol Ann Morison, 2025-05-01 Growing up as an only child in Stornoway could have been seen as idyllic - to a child, the island was a 'safe haven' with no serious crime and many unspoiled white sandy beaches. However, I discovered at the age of eight that I had been adopted from Glasgow. Although I knew that my parents loved me, very much, only one thing was missing from my life - a sister or brother to share my childhood fun. In 2008, with my own family and a successful career behind me, I revived a latent need to find out about my birth mother. During my search I was dismayed to learn that she had emigrated to Australia in 1973 with her new family. Along the way, I discovered more about my extended family - including my long desired siblings, their own lives and stories and the circumstances of my adoption. Writing this book, the first part in my series, took me on such an emotional journey as memories of love and loss were rekindled.

The Mordecai Ring Laurence J. Bucaria,2022-02-03 Dieter Wagner, a typical American student with core values earned over the years, is suddenly whisked away from the United States and forced to live in Nazi Germany. Since he has never been naturalized, having been brought to Germany at an early age, he becomes prey to a subversive Nazi organization bent on bringing him back as a German national. He becomes ensnared in a sex trap and moves to Germany. For the next seven years, he becomes part of Nazi Germany, where his allegiance is tested. Because of his excellent academic standing, he is treated well and, eventually, enters the Wehrmacht, where he does extremely well. He gradually sees the evil in effect by the Nazis as their anti-Semitic measures become obvious. His three bittersweet affairs are adversely affected by the Nazis. He befriends a Polish Jew and takes a prominent role in helping many families escape to Sweden. He is given a special ring with the message that he never should part with it. The war is won, and he returns to America. He exposes a plot to smuggle artistic items from Germany and is rewarded by earning citizenship. He uses his technical knowledge to start an electronics company, which becomes extremely successful. There is a hostile takeover attempt by trying to label him a Nazi. After undergoing a long legal campaign, the ring becomes the basis for his successful defense.

"I Am" Still Here! Ada Hagy, 2018-05-22 Who Am I? Good question. Here is your answer. I AM not the great I AM, yet I AM who Father God says I AM. This book is not about me; It is about my Father God, the great I AM my everything: Jesus and Holy Spirit. It is more than a LOVE story; it is HIS STORY, in through and around me. I am not one to boast on myself, yet I will boast in the Lord, all day and all night until Jesus returns. He will return! As you read about God the I AM you will experience His Majesty, His Greatness, His Glory, His Power and most importantly, His UNFAILING LOVE. I AM His vessel of honor chosen to share His UNFAILING LOVE for you and with you. This book is alive and I DECLARE AND DECREE, as you read, you will encounter HIS amazing presence like never before. Your life will never be the same and you will be SUPERNATURALLY transformed for His Honor and Glory. Thank you in advance for taking this journey with me through these chapters of truth, hope, joy, peace, mercy, forgiveness, faith, love and life. You too, will taste and see that because HE IS, YOU ARE and because HE IS, I AM STILL HERE!

Swimming With Lead Boots Meg Pinder, 2025-05-01 Swimming With Lead Boots by Meg Pinder is an autobiography that recounts the author's journey through various challenges and experiences in her life. The book is divided into two parts, with the first part focusing on her early years, struggles with self-esteem, and her career in education. Meg shares anecdotes from her time working in schools, dealing with difficult pupils, and navigating the complexities of her personal life. She reflects on her relationships, including a tumultuous one with a former partner, and the impact of these experiences on her growth and resilience. The second part of the book delves into more recent events, including the COVID-19 pandemic and its effects on her life and work. Meg discusses the importance of support from colleagues and family, and how she found strength in the face of adversity. The narrative is filled with humour, emotion, and insightful observations, making it a compelling read that highlights the author's determination to overcome obstacles and find happiness.
