The Fiction of Juan Rulfo Amit Thakkar, 2012 This is the first extended, English-language study to focus exclusively on the fiction of Juan Rulfo in over twenty years, analyzing a selection of short stories from Rulfo's collection and also two of the main characters of his masterpiece, Pedro Páramo. This is the first extended, English-language study to focus exclusively on the fiction of Juan Rulfo in over twenty years. It contains innovative analyses of a selection of short stories from Rulfo's collection, El llano en llamas (1953). It also examines in great depth two of the main characters of Pedro Páramo (1955), Rulfo's masterpiece and only novel. The book shows how Rulfo's works can be read as exercises in irony directed against the rhetoric of post-Revolutionary Mexican governments. It also demonstrates the relevance of certain legacies of colony in Rulfo's use of irony. Successive Mexican governments promoted a vision of post-Revolutionary society founded on specific notions of ethnicity, family, nation, education, religion and rural politics. The author combines examination of the speeches, images and newspaper articles which disseminated this vision with incisive literary analyses of Rulfo's work. These analyses are informed both by his original theory of irony, based on internal and external referents, and by existing postcolonial theories, particularly those of Homi K. Bhabha. Amit Thakkar is a Lecturer in Hispanic Studies at Lancaster University.

Structures of Power Terry J. Peavler, Peter Standish, 1996-01-01 Explores the many faces of power as revealed in twentieth-century Spanish-American fiction.

A World Torn Apart Victoria Carpenter, 2007 This collection of essays derives from a conference on Violence, Culture and Identity held in St Andrews in June 2003. It is a contribution to the understanding of representations of violence in Latin American narrative. The collected essays are dedicated to the study of the problematic history of violence as a means of 'civilizing' the region: violence used by dictatorial regimes to eradicate the collective memory of their actions; violence as a result of the history of marginalizing segments of the population; sexual violence as an attempt at complete control of the victim. The essays establish a clear link between historical, political and literary constructs spanning the past five hundred years of Latin American history. Close readings of political texts, historical documents, prose, poetry and films employ identity theories, postcolonial discourse, and the principles of mimetic and sacrificial violence. The volume adds to the ongoing critical investigation of the relationship between Latin American history and narrative, and to the key role of representations of violence within that narrative tradition.

Natural Disasters, Foreign Trade and Agriculture in Mexico Sergio O. Saldaña Zorrilla, PhD, 2015-07-04 This work responds to the increasing global need of measuring and analyzing impacts, vulnerabilities and coping capacity of countries, regions and communities regarding climate change, extreme weather conditions, natural disasters and institutional constraints. The case of Mexico, analyzed in this work, provides lessons for further developing countries to assess natural disasters vulnerability, for making informed adaptation decisions and to optimize resources for reducing country and community vulnerability. This book's analyses contribute to the current debate of the long-term economic impact of natural disasters (hurricanes, earthquakes, etc.), as well as offer an integral methodology combining natural and social sciences for studies of country and community level vulnerability to climate change. The lessons derived from this analysis provide useful elements for the design and improvement of governmental policies concerning social and economic development as well. In addition, the desegregation of this analysis has the advantage of facilitating the design and evaluation of governmental projects at municipal, sub-national and national level, as well as provides conceptual-empirical elements for international cooperation in matters of disaster risk reduction, climate change adaptation, rural development and poverty reduction.

Mexican Literature in Theory Ignacio M. Sánchez Prado, 2018-01-25 Mexican Literature in Theory is the first book in any language to engage post-independence Mexican literature from the perspective of current debates in literary and cultural theory. It brings together scholars whose work is defined both by their innovations in the study of Mexican literature and by the theoretical sophistication of their scholarship. Mexican Literature in Theory provides the reader with two contributions. First, it is one of the most complete accounts of Mexican literature available, covering both canonical texts as well as the most important works in contemporary production. Second, each one of the essays is in itself an important contribution to the elucidation of specific texts. Scholars and students in fields such as Latin American studies, comparative literature and literary theory will find in this book compelling readings of literature from a theoretical perspective, methodological suggestions as to how to use current theory in the study of literature, and important debates and revisions of major theoretical works through the lens of Mexican literary works.

Rethinking Juan Rulfo's Creative World Nuala Finnegan, Dylan Brennan, 2016-05-05 Though primarily known for his haunting, enigmatic novel Pedro Páramo and the unrelenting depictions of the failures of post-revolutionary Mexico in his short story collection, El Llano en llamas, Juan Rulfo also worked as scriptwriter on various collaborative film projects and his powerful interventions in the area of documentary photography ensure that he continues to inspire interest worldwide. Bringing together some of the most significant names in Rulfian scholarship, this anthology engages with the complexity and diversity of Rulfo's cultural production. The essays in the collection bring the Rulfian texts into dialogues with other cultural traditions and techniques including the Japanese Noh or mask plays and modernist experimentation in the Irish language. They also deploy diverse theoretical frameworks that range from Roland Barthes' work on studium and punctum in photography to Henri Lefebvre's ideas on space and spatiality and the postmodern insights of Jean Baudrillard on the nature of the simulacrum and the hyperreal. In this way, innovative approaches are brought to bear on the Rulfian texts as a way of illuminating the rich tensions and anxieties they evoke about Mexico, about history, about art and about the human condition.

A Semiotic Theory of Texts Floyd Merrell, 2019-07-22 No detailed description available for A Semiotic Theory of Texts.

Determinations Neil Larsen, 2001-09-17 In essays that engage the current theoretical parlances of 'ambivalence', 'hybridity' and the 'subaltern', Larsen concludes with a critical reassessment of Benedict Anderson's Imagined Communities.

Writing Across Cultures Angel Rama, 2012-05-29 Ángel Rama was one of twentieth-century Latin America's most distinguished men of letters. Writing across Cultures is his comprehensive analysis of the varied sources of Latin American literature. Originally published in 1982, the book links Rama's work on Spanish American modernism with his arguments about the innovative nature of regionalist literature, and it foregrounds his thinking about the close relationship between literary movements, such as modernism or regionalism, and global trends in social and economic development. In Writing across Cultures, Rama extends the Cuban anthropologist Fernando Ortiz's theory of transculturation far beyond Cuba, bringing it to bear on regional cultures across Latin America, where new cultural arrangements have been forming among indigenous, African, and European societies for the better part of five centuries. Rama applies this concept to the work of the Peruvian novelist, poet, and anthropologist José María Arguedas, whose writing drew on both Spanish and Quechua, Peru's two major languages and, by extension, cultures. Rama considered Arguedas's novel Los ríos profundos (Deep Rivers) to be the most accomplished example of narrative transculturation in Latin America. Writing across Cultures is the second of Rama's books to be translated into English.

A Companion to Juan Rulfo Steven Boldy, 2016 A comprehensive study of the Mexican writer considered one of the finest novelists and short-story writers in 20th-century Latin America.

Primitivism and Identity in Latin America Erik Camayd-Freixas, JosŽ Eduardo Gonz#lez, 2000-08 Although primitivism has received renewed attention in recent years, studies linking it with Latin America have been rare. This volume examines primitivism and its implications for contemporary debates on Latin American culture, literature, and arts, showing how Latin American subjects employ a Western construct to return the gaze of the outside world and redefine themselves in relation to modernity. Examining such subjects as Julio Cort#zar and Frida Kahlo and such topics as folk art and cinema, the volume brings together for the first time the views of scholars who are currently engaging the task of cultural studies from the standpoint of primitivism. These varied contributions include analyses of Latin American art in relation to social issues, popular culture, and official cultural policy; essays in cultural criticism touching on ethnic identity, racial politics, women's issues, and conflictive modernity; and analytical studies of primitivism's impact on narrative theory and practice, film, theater, and poetry. This collection contributes offers a new perspective on a variety of significant debates in Latin American cultural studies and shows that the term primitive does not apply to these cultures as much as to our understanding of them.

La ficci3n de la memoria Federico Campbell, 2003 Antolog#a que recoge investigaciones, ensayos, testimonios y entrevistas sobre la obra literaria de Juan Rulfo. El orden de su secuencia es cronol3gico porque quiere hacer ver cu#l ha sido la evoluci3n cr#tica a lo largo de los a#os, desde los primeros trabajos de Carlos Blanco Aguinaga (1955), Mariana Frenk (1961), hasta los de Juan Villoro (2000) y Jorge Aguilar Mora (2001): las diferentes lecturas de una generación a otra. Asimismo los testimonios se presentan –de Gabriel García Márquez (1980) y Jorge Luis Borges (1985) a Juan José Arreola (1994) y Jorge Volpi (2000)– según se fueron dando en el tiempo a partir del momento en que aparecieron {El llano en llamas}, en 1953, y {Pedro Páramo}, la única, magistral novela de Rulfo.

El llano en llamas Juan Rulfo, 2019-06-01 La obra contiene 17 cuentos publicados por Juan Rulfo a partir de 1945, cuando aparece el titulado Nos han dado la tierra en las revistas América y Pan. Rulfo comenta los relatos que sigue escribiendo en cartas a su novia Clara Aparicio. En 1951 se publica el séptimo, Diles que no me maten, en la revista América. Gracias a la primera beca que Rulfo recibe del Centro Mexicano de Escritores puede terminar los ocho que aparecerán con los previos en 1953, en el libro titulado El Llano en llamas, dedicado a Clara. Dos relatos más, aparecidos en revistas en 1955, serán incluidos en la edición de 1970. Los cuentos incluidos en este volumen fueron considerados por Rulfo como su aproximación a Pedro Páramo. La presente edición incluye el texto definitivo de la obra establecido por la Fundación Juan Rulfo.

Tríptico para Juan Rulfo Víctor Jiménez, 2006 Tríptico para Juan Rulfo consta de tantas secciones como indica el subtítulo: poesía, fotografía y crítica. El primer apartado comprende la versión de las Elegías de Duino que Rulfo produjo a partir de la traducción de Gonzalo Torrente Ballester y la versión de Juan José Domenchina. El segundo se compone de artículos dedicados a la primera exposición fotográfica de Rulfo (Guadalajara, 1960), la inserción de su fotografía en la historia de esa disciplina tanto en América Latina como en México, y la caracterización de sus motivos recurrentes y tratamientos visuales. El tercer apartado reúne testimonios sobre el escritor y artículos en torno a sus textos narrativos; un conjunto que propone distintas relecturas, siempre desde perspectivas analíticas rigurosas y documentadas.
