Pride and Love Arrogance and Hatred Syed Parvez Rahaman, 2022-11-21 "As the economic trouble prevails, Lucifer, a sober and talented boy, has to leave his home to take admission to a college for pursuing an English degree for securing a job, and to learn more about his favourite English language. His ill father and married sister are his only family. And he makes a good bond with his friend, SPR. On his mission of pursuing the degree and securing a job, he faces many challenges, and he suffers from heartbreaks as well. Being motivated by his friend's creative and realistic quotes and poems, he writes a long letter including his poems of true emotions and the lessons he learns during his stay at his hostel and his friend's house, and during the times he spends in his college and with his dream girl." Now the questions are, how did he perceive the world while facing different challenges? Was he able to find a life partner? Did he survive or not? Did he make any use of his talent? Collective Responsibility Såde Hormio, Bill Wringer, 2024-11-26 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the ways in which the concept of collective responsibility is relevant to ongoing normative debates in social and political philosophy. Individual chapters address issues such as the relationship between collective obligations and collective responsibility, the kinds of groups which can be the subjects of collective responsibility and obligations, and the relationship between the obligations of groups and the obligations of individual members of those groups. The book also puts these concepts to work in a number of applied cases, including questions around corporate responsibility and responsibility of AI, or debates about the responsibilities of individuals in relationship to questions about state wrong-doing, or the obligations of allies of marginalised social groups. The guiding principle of the book is that by taking both the theoretical and the applied issues seriously, we can gain new insights into the structure of collective responsibility and its practical implications. In addition to drawing on technical contributions of social ontology, the book is interested in what our real-life practices reveal to us about collective responsibility. The further question is should some of our institutional practices be revised in light of the implicit ontological claims that they make. This book appeals to academics and students in philosophy, political theory and legal studies, especially graduates and postgraduates.

Love at First Haunt Carrie Pulkinen, 2021-01-29 A psychic who's afraid of ghosts... Is that even a thing? For medium Allison Gray, it certainly is. She's seen dead people for as long as she can remember, but a harrowing incident from her past has left her terrified of spirits. The one in Logan's house is no exception. Logan Mitchell is an empath, and while his gift of reading people's emotions has come in handy in the business world, it's about to drive him insane. Literally. If his psychic power doesn't make him crazy, the ghost that's haunting him soon will. He's given up hope of ever having a normal life, until he meets Allison. She could be the answer to his prayers, but even if she can overcome her fears, loving Logan will mean risking her life. If you like steamy romance with a spooky twist, you'll love this thrilling ghost story!

Making Sense From Nonsense Daniel Fuller, For war Correct and normal posture is: Scoliotic spine fixed in alignment with adopted language Shoulders slouching under symbolic statistics Head forward neck perfect for pain Not standing up against the costs Sitting down like a desk worker fostering the process Virtue sleeping Its fire cliparted Straddling the boundaries between human creativity and AI, between sense and nonsense, between text and pictures, Making Sense From Nonsense is a unique book of experimental poetry crafted from words generated by Google's algorithm, and illustrated with full-colour AI art. Powerful poems and illustrations are rife with meaning, whether that's a meaning plucked from the reader's mind or from the poet's. Divided into four sections, poems have a wide variety of styles. The landscapes they describe range from the gothic/fantasy splendour of "The Magical" (A Medieval song streams from the crypt/Like a curtain of night fog/ Tracking dew upon the spider webs") to an often absurd present in "Reality" (Sweet Myrtle lays them down wisely/Her crispy potato chip collection"). In "The Absurd Reality of Violence," poems address wartime, the migrant crisis, and much more besides. As the author notes in the introduction, "the best aspect of this collection of poems is that you need to figure out for yourself where the Nonsense stops, and the truth begins."

Oxford Dictionary of Quotations by Subject Susan Ratcliffe, 2010-03-11 Over 7,000 quotations arranged by subject for easy look-up. Nearly 600 subjects covered, from Memory and Humour to Television and Weddings.

The Unprofessionals Julie Hecht, 2008-08-12 There is no American writer alive who is funnier, more inquisitive, or more surprising than Julie Hecht. The Unprofessionals, her first novel, whose narrator also told the stories in the author's bestselling collection Do the Windows Open?, is a triumph of tragicomedy. The book follows the odd friendship between the narrator -- a photographer in her late forties -- and a precocious raconteur, identified only as The Boy, whom she has known since his childhood. As the narrator and the young man regale each other with tales of the way Americans live now, she is also telling the story of his path to heroin addiction and his many attempts to recover. The Unprofessionals is a masterpiece of comic despair, illuminating our bewildering century, and a hilarious and sad story of two outsiders who see the world with painful clarity -- and as a whole, a novel of unexampled originality.

It was divinely inspired by the Holy Spirit. Within its pages are quips and quotes that can be applied to our lives as we walk in the purpose and destiny God has planned for our lives. There are also poems of honor and appreciation for loved ones that have gone on before us. The Word says, We are to give honor where honor is due. God is the great rewarder and has rewarded us with the privilege of having them in our lives. May this book be a blessing to all that read it and encourage you to seek His face. I pray you find that place in Him where you are Captured By His Mercy and Transformed By His Love. Susie Farina was born in Pleasantville, New Jersey. It was then that she gave her heart to Him. She is married and has two children. She serves as an Administrator at the Solid Rock Church in Glenmont, New York. She is an Ordained Minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The experiences she has encountered in life have caused her to seek after the Lord as He has Captured her heart By His Mercy and Transformed her away By His Love.

Unfair & Unbalanced Patrick M. Carlisle, 2004 Called by readers blazingly funny, divinely inspired, breathtaking, sophisticated, original, deranged, a brilliant intellect wasted, and a comedic genius, if one could stew Dave Barry, Hunter Thompson, Al Franken and David Sedaris down into a thick, tasty ragout which might then be served over noodles, that might begin to approximate the unexpectedly hilarious experience of reading Patrick Carlisle. In a thoroughly questionable and highly refutable manner, with wildly fluctuating amounts of insight and sensitivity, Mr. Carlisle examines such irrational topics of modern identity as internet dating, the fanatic right wing, the dark, dangerous appeal of Meg Ryan, the unfathomable motivations behind the comb-over, the mysterious banana test, first love, antidepressants and the heartbreaking challenge of being a Yum! Brands Man. Pessimistic but full of longing, immersed in popular culture but oddly erudite, manic and depressive in turn, deeply and absurdly tangential, profoundly deluded and yet uncomfortably honest, liberal but utterly politically incorrect . most importantly, in the words of one reviewer, Patrick Carlisle is so horribly, mind-bogglingly funny.
