Things My Mother Didn't Teach Me Linnet Dave, 2025-02-01 The book emerges from personal experience and intense struggle against the norms that are accepted as a result of our conditioning while living in a patriarchal society. We wish to live in a society with no gender discrimination. Until and unless we teach our children to respect and value women, not only through words but actions, we cannot eliminate gender discrimination. Often mothers tell their children, "Girls should know how to cook," "Girls should not revolt against sexual harassment," "Women should always sacrifice," "Women are great at multitasking," etc. An underlying message goes out, clear and loud, to children that women are supposed to be submissive and should never raise their voices. Is this the kind of world we aim to create for our children? It's time to raise our children differently! The onus lies with each one of us, especially mothers.

I Can't Believe It's Not Buddha! Bodhipaksa, 2018-11-06 Quotes from the Buddha are everywhere: on Facebook, Instagram, coffee mugs, posters. There's only one problem: the Buddha didn't actually say most of them. This humorous and informative book takes these fake Buddha quotes as a launching point for a discussion on what the Buddha really did say, and is a great entry point for those interested in learning more about Buddhism--what it is, and what it isn't. Bodhipaksa, a well-known Buddhist teacher and the founder of fakebuddhaquotes.com, takes a look at some of the quotes that are erroneously attributed to the Buddha, explains the ways in which these disagree (or sometimes agree) with Buddhist teachings, and offers some genuine examples of the Buddha's words. The perfect gift for the Buddhist in your life and an essential addition to any Buddhist library, I Can't Believe It's Not Buddha! is at once humorous and scholarly, and a timely antidote to the fake news that can surround some of the Buddha's teachings.

Vivere est vincere: To live is to conquer. This is an archetypal tale of the hero embarking on a journey of self-discovery. You may see patterns from your own life journey in these pages.
