Territorio fluvial Alfredo Ollero Ojeda,2007-12-20 Este libro constituye un ensayo científico elaborado a partir de la experiencia del autor en sistemas fluviales. Su objetivo es aportar una solución a los problemas ambientales y de riesgos de los principales ríos de llanura. Se explica la función y valor de los sistemas fluviales en el territorio y se presenta su problemática actual. La dinámica hidrogeomorfológica fluvial es el factor clave que hay que proteger, conservar o restaurar: sólo una dinámica natural activa puede asegurar en el futuro la supervivencia del sistema natural fluvial, de los ecosistemas acuáticos y ribereños, y de todos los valores ecológicos y ambientales que atesoran. Se propone una solución que resolvería tanto los problemas ambientales como los relacionados con los riesgos: la devolución al río de parte de su territorio, de un espacio de movilidad o territorio fluvial que garantizaría la conservación de la dinámica y de los ecosistemas, reduciría el riesgo por laminación natural de las inundaciones y sería la clave para la urgente y necesaria restauración fluvial.

La historia urbanística de una ciudad es el relato que explica las transformaciones que se han producido en el territorio urbano relacionándolas con sus dimensiones espaciales y temporales. Este libro constituye una aportación al conocimiento de la historia de la ciudad de Alicante. Sus textos exponen los cambios que se han manifestado en el territorio del entorno de las playas de San Juan-Muchavista desde el inicio de la década de los años treinta del siglo XX hasta la actualidad y cuáles han sido las circunstancias en las que se han producido, desde la política hasta el medio ambiente y el turismo. El libro recoge las intervenciones de un ciclo de conferencias promovido por el Archivo de la Democracia de la Universidad de Alicante que tuvieron lugar en la Sede de la UA en Alicante con motivo de cumplirse 90 años de la aprobación de la llamada ley Prieto, impulsada por el ministro de Obras Públicas del Gobierno de la II República Indalecio Prieto, con el objeto de planificar una «ciudad de vacaciones» inspirada en los ideales de la «ciudad jardín». Desgraciadamente, este proyecto se fue desvirtuando tras la Guerra Civil, sustituido por otros, de los que todavía alguno de ellos recogía determinaciones del proyecto original, hasta que en los años sesenta el área se convirtió en un referente del turismo vacacional de sol y playa, con todas sus implicaciones urbanísticas y arquitectónicas. A comienzos del siglo actual el sector pasó a ser un espacio en donde confluyeron los factores determinantes de las nuevas formas de producción de suelo residencial y de vida urbana.

China en América Latina Rebecca Ray,Kevin P. Gallagher,Andrés López,Cynthia A. Sanborn,2017-04-21 En América Latina, el reciente boom de las inversiones chinas es visto por algunos como una bendición, por permitirnos un mayor crecimiento económico, y por otros como una maldición, porque presenta una alta concentración en sectores primarios y extractivos. ¿Cuál es el balance de esta experiencia? ¿Las inversiones chinas han sido un motor de cambio positivo? ¿Las empresas chinas en nuestra región tienen un desempeño diferente del de otras empresas? En este libro, investigadores en ocho países –Argentina, Bolivia, Brasil, Colombia, Chile, Ecuador, México y Perú– se unen para responder estas preguntas. Sus estudios enfatizan el lado socioambiental de la relación con China, y el desempeño tanto de las empresas chinas en relación con otras transnacionales, como de los gobiernos nacionales al establecer altos estándares regulatorios. Se trata de una lectura analítica e informativa, y de un llamado a forjar relaciones internacionales basadas en la cooperación y el respeto mutuo. Rebecca Ray Es investigadora en la Iniciativa para la Gobernanza Económica Mundial de la Boston University, Estados Unidos y candidata doctoral en Economía en la University of Massachusetts Amherst, Estados Unidos. Kevin P. Gallagher Es profesor de Política de Desarrollo Global de la Pardee School of Global Studies de la Boston University, Estados Unidos, donde codirige la Iniciativa para la Gobernanza Económica Mundial. Tiene un Ph. D. en Economía Política Internacional por la Tufts University, Estados Unidos.
