Latinos in Libraries, Museums, and Archives Patricia Montiel-Overall, Annabelle Villaescusa Nuñez, Verónica Reyes-Escudero, 2015-12-17 Written by three experienced LIS professionals, Latinos in Libraries, Museums, and Archives demonstrates the meaning of cultural competence in the everyday work in libraries, archives, museums, and special collections with Latino populations. The authors focus on their areas of expertise including academic, school, public libraries, health sciences, archives, and special collections to show the importance of understanding how cultural competence effects the day-to-day communication, relationship building, and information provision with Latinos. They acknowledge the role of both tacit and explicit knowledge in their work, and discuss ways in which cultural competence is integral to successful delivery of services to, communication with, and relationship building with Latino communities.

From Principles to Practice in Education for Intercultural Citizenship Michael Byram,Irina Golubeva,Han Hui,Manuela Wagner,2016-11-01 The contributors to this volume have collaborated to present their work on introducing competences in intercultural communication and citizenship into foreign language education. The book examines how learners and teachers think about citizenship and interculturality, and shows how teachers and researchers from primary to university education can work together across continents to develop new curricula and pedagogy. This involves the creation of a new theory of intercultural citizenship and a procedure for implementation. The book is written by teacher researchers who aim to help other teachers, and concludes with reflections on the lessons they have learnt which will help others to implement these ideas in their own practice. The book is essential reading for foreign language educators and researchers, students in pre-service teacher training and teachers in in-service training.

Urban Resettlements in the Global South Raffael Beier,Amandine Spire,Marie Bridonneau,2021-09-09 Urban Resettlements in the Global South provides new perspectives on resettlement through an urban studies lens. To date, resettlement has been theorised through development studies and refugee studies, but urban resettlement is also a major dimension of urban development in the Global South and may help to rethink contemporary urban dynamics between spectacular new town developments and rising incidences of eviction and displacement. Conceptualising resettlement as a binding notion between production/regeneration and destruction/demolition of urban space helps to illuminate interdependencies and to underline significant ambiguities within affected people's perspectives towards resettlement projects. This volume will offer an interesting selection of ten different case studies with rich empirical data from Latin America, North and Sub-Saharan Africa, and Asia, focused on each stage of resettlement (before, during, after relocation) through different timescales. By offering a frame for analysing and rethinking resettlement within urban studies, it will support any scholar or expert dealing with resettlement, displacement, and housing in an urban context, seeking to improve housing and planning policies in and for the city.

El patio de mi casa ,2010 En un entorno idílico y tradicional como son los patios cordobeses, la iniciativa reunió a 16 artistas de tres continentes con la intención de aunar lo privado y lo público, la tradición y lo contemporáneo. La exposición pretendía dar a conocer al público nacional e internacional uno de los patrimonios culturales más característicos de Córdoba, sus patios, al tiempo que se establece un diálogo entre ese patrimonio y las últimas tendencias del arte contemporáneo internacional.

Rooting in a Useless Land Chelsea Fisher,2023-10-03 In Rooting in a Useless Land, Chelsea Fisher examines the deep histories of environmental-justice conflicts in Mexico's Yucatán Peninsula. She draws on her innovative archaeological research in Yaxunah, an Indigenous Maya farming community dealing with land dispossession, but with a surprising twist: Yaxunah happens to be entangled with prestigious sustainable-development projects initiated by some of the most famous chefs in the world. Fisher contends that these sustainable-development initiatives inadvertently bolster the useless-land narrative—a colonial belief that Maya forests are empty wastelands—which has been driving Indigenous land dispossession and environmental injustice for centuries. Rooting in a Useless Land explores how archaeology, practiced within communities, can restore history and strengthen relationships built on contested ground.

Linguistic Landscapes in Language and Teacher Education Sílvia Melo-Pfeifer, 2023-04-25 This book offers an international account of the use of linguistic landscapes to promote multilingual education, from primary school to the university, and in teacher education programs. It brings linguistic landscapes to the forefront of multilingual education in school settings and teacher education, expanding the disciplinary domains through which they have been studied. Drawing on multidisciplinary and placing linguistic landscapes in the field of language (teacher) education, this book presents empirical studies developed in eleven countries: Australia, France, Germany, Israel, Japan, Mozambique, The Netherlands, Portugal, Russia, Spain, and The United States. The chapters illustrate how multilingual pedagogies can be enhanced using linguistic landscapes in mainstream education and are written by partners of the Erasmus Plus project LoCALL “Local Linguistic Landscapes for global language education in the school context”.

Casas/Houses Diana Veglo, 2001 Resumen: La secuencia de proyectos presentados, demuestran una vez más, la vitalidad y la coherencia que el tema vivienda conserva a pesar de los cambios operados en la sociedad de fines del siglo XX, esto se observa, al examinar los programas básicos aplicados por los arquitectos en la etapa de gestación del proyecto, en los que tratan de mantener algunos ingredientes esenciales para la salud del tejido social. Las tres áreas clásicas, estar-privado-servicio, se conservan sin cambios, con distintas maneras de relación, jugando un papel muy importante los espacios de expansión, abiertos o semicubiertos, que tienen una singular importancia para la vida familiar.
