

Las Aventuras De La China Iron

Pamela Lothspeich

The Adventures of China Iron Gabriela Cabezón Cámara, 2019-11-14 Shortlisted for the International Booker Prize 2020
1872. The pampas of Argentina. China is a young woman eking out an existence in a remote gaucho encampment. After her no-good husband is conscripted into the army, China bolts for freedom, setting off on a wagon journey through the pampas in the company of her new-found friend Liz, a settler from Scotland. While Liz provides China with a sentimental education and schools her in the nefarious ways of the British Empire, their eyes are opened to the wonders of Argentina's richly diverse flora and fauna, cultures and languages, as well as to the ruthless violence involved in nation-building. This subversive retelling of Argentina's foundational gaucho epic Martín Fierro is a celebration of the colour and movement of the living world, the open road, love and sex, and the dream of lasting freedom. With humour and sophistication, Gabriela Cabezón Cámara has created a joyful, hallucinatory novel that is also an incisive critique of national myths.

Las aventuras de la China Iron Gabriela Cabezón Cámara, 2017-10-01 La refundación más radical del clásico Martín Fierro: aquí, la protagonista es su China, que a los 14 años aprovecha que a él se lo lleva la leva para salir al mundo. Libro finalista del 2020 International Booker Prize. Uno de los mejores libros de ficción iberoamericana de 2017 según The New York Times. Elegido por el diario El País entre los 20 mejores libros latinoamericanos publicados en 2017 en México, Argentina y Colombia. Seleccionado por Página 12 entre lo mejor del año en materia de letras que irradian empoderamiento y pasión, lucha y súper poderes femeninos, sororidad y familia queer. Entre los 9 highlights del año 2017 por la revista Los InRockuptibles. Radiante, luminoso. El desierto es un prisma de perros, cardos, polvo y cielo. La China Iron acompaña a Liz, una inglesa que va tras su marido llevado por la leva. Ella, en cambio, no busca a Martín Fierro, ese gaucho que se la ganó en un partido de truco. La China escapa. Y es su viaje exploración: de la textura de la seda, del sabor del té, del sofoco en que estalla el sexo. Descubre palabras. Sonidos nuevos para cosas que antes no existían. Pasan del desierto al fortín, un experimento social que intenta transformar a una masa de criollos brutos en los ciudadanos industrioses que pide la Nación. Pero será en las tolderías que la China y su feliz comitiva encontrarán el Paraíso. También allí, Gabriela Cabezón Cámara reanima su pertinaz aventura literaria: la de fundar un mundo libre, en el que las criaturas se abracen por deseo y gocen el mismo amor de ríos, pájaros y árboles. Y no se sientan solas jamás. «El estilo de Cabezón Cámara es inconfundible, y eso se puede decir de pocos escritores en la literatura argentina. Sólo queda esperar que su ritmo gozoso y sus frases cultísimas y, al mismo tiempo, reventadas se repitan hasta olvidar el nombre de la autora, como se dice un verso de tango o del mismo Martín Fierro.» María Moreno, Ñ «Una inteligente ficción sobre la utopía que revoluciona todos los géneros, a partir de un personaje muy secundario del Martín Fierro (al modo de Coetzee en Foe).» Jorge Carrión, The New York Times «Cabezón Cámara inventa toda una política de la felicidad que, de haberse impuesto en el mundo real, otra sería la Historia. La Ley Cabezón Cámara no elimina al gozador: lo organiza y lo hace viajar.» María Moreno, Revista Anfibia «Otro proyecto de país y de mundo, la novela de Cabezón Cámara es luminosa y casi todo el tiempo, feliz. Y a medida que avanza al desierto encuentra una forma de civilización más diversa y más humana.» Patricia Kolesnicov, Clarín «Las aventuras de la China Iron, una novela transgénero inteligente, delirante e inolvidable.» Hinde Pomeraniec, Infobae «Una utopía queer donde el deseo tiene poder de aglutinar voluntades. La China (ya no como sinónimo de hembra sino con mayúsculas) nace de nuevo en el punto que había quedado en la obra de Hernández: la nada.» Liliana Viola, Suplemento Soy (Página 12)

Las aventuras de China Iron / The Adventures of China Iron Gabriela Cabezón Cámara, 2019-12-17 FINALISTA DEL PREMIO MAN BOOKER INTERNACIONAL 2020 Uno de los mejores libros de ficción iberoamericana de 2017 según The New York Times. Elegido por el diario El País entre los 20 mejores libros latinoamericanos publicados en 2017 en México, Argentina y Colombia. Seleccionado por Página 12 entre lo mejor del año en materia de letras que irradian empoderamiento y pasión, lucha y súper poderes femeninos, sororidad y familia queer. Entre los 9 highlights del año 2017 por la revista Les InRockuptibles. La refundación más radical del clásico argentino Martín Fierro, una novela reivindicativa sobre la liberación de una mujer que abraza los paisajes desbordantes de La Pampa. Radiante y luminoso. El desierto es un prisma de perros, cardos, polvo y cielo. La China Iron, la mujer que ganó Martín Fierro en una partida de cartas, acompaña a Liz, una inglesa que va tras la pista de su marido. La China, ahora liberada de las cuerdas del gaucho, emprende un viaje de exploración por las texturas, los sabores y los placeres que le ofrecen la tierra y su nueva compañera. Después de un largo camino, llegarán al Paraíso, donde encontrarán un mundo libre, en el que las criaturas se abrazan por deseo y los ríos, los pájaros y los árboles gozan del mismo amor. Gabriela Cabezón Cámara conforma un fascinante ejercicio literario donde reimagina el universo del gran relato argentino en clave de género, a través de una apasionada aventura queer. ENGLISH DESCRIPTION SHORTLISTED FOR THE 2020 MAN BOOKER INTERNATIONAL PRIZE The most dynamic reworking of the Argentinean classic Martín Fierro, this is a radical novel about the liberation of a woman who embraces the boundless landscapes of La Pampa. Radiant and luminous. The desert is a prism of dogs, thistles, dust, and sky. The China Iron, the woman who beat Martín Fierro at a game of cards, accompanies Liz, an Englishwoman who is searching for her husband. China, now free of the gaucho's lasso, embarks on a journey of exploration through the textures, flavors, and pleasures that the land and her new companion offer. After a long journey, they arrive in Paraíso, where they find a free world in which the creatures embrace each other in desire and the rivers, birds, and trees enjoy the same sort of love. Gabriela Cabezón Cámara composes

a fascinating literary exercise in which she reimagines the universe of the great Argentinean tale in the key of gender, through a passionate queer adventure.

A History of Argentine Literature Alejandra Laera, Mónica Szurmuk, 2024-05-16 Argentine Literature continues to figure prominently in academic programs in the English-speaking world, and it has an increasing presence in English translation in international prizes and trade journals. A History of Argentine Literature proposes a major reimagining of Argentine literature attentive to production in indigenous and migration languages and to current debates in Literary Studies. Panoramic in scope and incisive in its in-depth studies of authors, works, and theoretical problems, this volume builds on available scholarship on canonical works but opens up the field to include a more diverse rendering as well as engaging with the full spectrum of textual interventions from travel writing to drama, from popular 'gauchesca' to celebrated avant guard works Working at the crossroads of disciplines, languages and critical traditions, this book accounts for the wealth of Argentine cultural production and maps the rich, diverse and often overlooked history of Argentine literature.

Centers and Peripheries in Romance Language Literatures in the Americas and Africa ,2024-01-15 What is center and periphery? How can centers and peripheries be recognized by their ontological and axiological features? How does the axiological saturation of a literary field condition aesthetics? How did these factors transform center-periphery relationships to the former metropolises of Romance literatures of the Americas and Africa? What are the consequences of various deperipheralization contexts and processes for poetics? Using theoretical sections and case studies, this book surveys and investigates the limits of globalization. Through explorations of the intercultural dynamics, the aesthetic contributions of former peripheries are examined in terms of the transformative nature of peripheries on centralities.

The Western in the Global Literary Imagination ,2022-11-21 This groundbreaking collection of essays tells the surprising story of how the American Western has shaped world literature, fueling provocative novels and reflections about national identity, settler colonialism, and violence. Containing nineteen chapters spanning Asia, Africa, the Americas, Australia, Europe, Israel, and New Zealand, as well as a guiding, critical introduction, this book opens an exciting new chapter in the study of popular culture, literature, and globalization. Through this international lens, the literary Western casts off the categories of juvenilia and formula to come into focus as a vital and creative statement about identity, power, and history. Contributors are: Zbigniew Białas, Manuela Borzone, Flavia Brizio-Skov, Alex Calder, Neil Campbell, Christopher Conway, Samir Dayal, Joel Deshayé, Johannes Fehrle, MaryEllen Higgins, Emily Hind, Shelly Jarenski, Rachel Leket-Mor, Warren Motte, Andrew Nette, Marek Paryż, David Rio, Steffen Wöll, and Sergei Zhuk

Socio-Environmental Crisis in Women's Novels and Films in The Americas Victoria Jara, 2025-03-31 The climate crisis has reached a critical point, necessitating urgent global action. Women's activism against environmental dispossession in the Americas manifests not only in protests and classrooms but also through artistic filmmaking and writing. This book focuses on the overlooked contributions of women filmmakers and novelists, highlighting how their work reveals the connections between environmental dispossession and various injustices related to gender, ethnicity, age, class, and labor. It demonstrates that contemporary women in the Americas engage deeply with ecological issues, analyzing their representations and identifying common principles across texts. Using an interdisciplinary approach from environmental humanities, gender and Indigenous studies, and film and literary studies, the author compares works from Canada and Latin America. Three poetics emerge: environmental destruction critiques harmful development; care expands notions of reciprocity beyond the human; and insurgency showcases struggles against extractivist models. These works invite readers to understand the complex interconnections of environmental justice within society.

The Routledge Handbook of Ecofeminism and Literature Douglas A. Vakoch, 2022-09-19 The Routledge Handbook of Ecofeminism and Literature explores the interplay between the domination of nature and the oppression of women, as well as liberatory alternatives, bringing together essays from leading academics in the field to facilitate cutting-edge critical readings of literature. Covering the main theoretical approaches and key literary genres of the area, this volume includes: Examination of ecofeminism through the literatures of a diverse sampling of languages, including Hindi, Chinese, Arabic, and Spanish; native speakers of Tamil, Vietnamese, Turkish, Slovene, and Icelandic Analysis of core issues and topics, offering innovative approaches to interpreting literature, including: activism, animal studies, cultural studies, disability, gender essentialism, hegemonic masculinity, intersectionality, material ecocriticism, postcolonialism, posthumanism, postmodernism, race, and sentimental ecology Surveys key periods and genres of ecofeminism and literary criticism, including chapters on Gothic, Romantic, and Victorian literatures, children and young adult literature, mystery, and detective fictions, including interconnected genres of climate fiction, science fiction, and fantasy, and distinctive perspectives provided by travel writing, autobiography, and poetry This collection explores how each of ecofeminism's core concerns can foster a more emancipatory literary theory and criticism, now and in the future. This comprehensive volume will be of great interest to scholars and students of literature, ecofeminism, ecocriticism, gender studies, and the environmental humanities.

Changes in the Landscape Jennifer L. French, 2025-02-07 Changes in the Landscape is a collection of timely essays that bring the methodologies and commitments of ecocriticism to bear on the study of Latin American literature and cultural production. The book's eleven chapters, written by some of the leading voices in the field, invite readers to consider how the relationship between humans and nonhuman nature was fundamentally transformed during a period when new modes of capitalist production were emerging in the region and around the world. Jennifer L. French's introductory essay provides a historical and theoretical framework for the collection. Ranging from the immediate aftermath of the Spanish-American Wars of Independence (1810-1826) to the early twentieth century (1925), the volume's essays cover a wide variety of genres and forms of cultural production, from José Hernández's epic poem Martín Fierro to prose fiction, painting and photography, and the personal albums compiled by Spanish-American women. Individually and collectively, the essays engage with scientific writing as both a discourse of power and a source of potentially significant, even revelatory information about human and nonhuman nature. Changes in the Landscape enables readers to more fully understand the transition from colonial regimes to the ecocidal extractivism of the export boom (1870-1930) by drawing out and analyzing some of the cognitive resources and rhetorical strategies that were available to imagine, protest, or enact new norms and expectations regarding the relations between human and nonhuman life, be it the life of wildflowers, waterfalls, or Cuba's Ciénaga de Zapata.

The Epic World Pamela Lothspeich, 2024-01-30 Reconceptualizing the epic genre and opening it up to a world of storytelling, The Epic World makes a timely and bold intervention toward understanding the human propensity to aestheticize and normalize mass deployments of power and violence. The collection broadly considers three kinds of epic literature: conventional celebratory tales of conquest that glorify heroism, especially male heroism; anti-epics or stories of conquest from the perspectives of the dispossessed, the oppressed, the despised, and the murdered; and heroic stories utilized for imperialist or nationalist purposes. The Epic World illustrates global patterns of epic storytelling, such as the durability of stories tied to religious traditions and/or to peoples who have largely stayed put; the tendency to reimagine and retell stories in new ways over centuries; and the imbrication of epic storytelling and forms of colonialism and imperialism, especially those perpetuated and glorified by Euro-Americans over the past 500 years, resulting in unspeakable and immeasurable harms to humans, other living beings, and the planet Earth. The Epic World is a go-to volume for anyone interested in epic literature in a global framework. Engaging with powerful stories and ways of knowing beyond those of the predominantly white Global North, this field-shifting volume exposes the false premises of Western civilization and Classics, and brings new questions and perspectives to epic studies.

Untold Microcosms Sophie Hughes, Carolina Orloff, 2022-09-06 Collection, colonialism, translation, and the ephemera that shapes the stories we tell about ourselves. Featuring new original works by: Yásnaya Elena Aguilar, Cristina Rivera Garza, Joseph Zárate, Juan Cárdenas, Velia Vidal, Lina Meruane, Gabriela Cabezón Cámara, Dolores Reyes, Carlos Fonseca, Djamila Ribeiro The Central and South American collection at the British Museum collections contains approximately 62,000 objects, spanning 10,000 years of human history. The vast majority cannot be displayed, and those objects are the subject of Untold Microcosms, a collection of ten stories from ten Latin American writers, and inspired by the narratives about our past that we create through museums, in spite of their gaps and disarticulations.

Latin American Literatures in Global Markets, 2022-11-07 Market relations are changing not only the distribution and promotion of literary works but also their content, their language, and their social and political function. This book penetrates the intricacies of literary production, circulation and reception, focusing on some of the most original and representative authors of today such as Roberto Bolaño, Gabriela Cabezón Camara, Yuri Herrera, and Irmgard Emmelhainz, among others. The book also illuminates on the “materiality” of literature and the strategies of literary marketing: festivals, book fairs, digitalization, and translation. Globalization and regional particularisms meet, then, in the symbolic territories of the literary world, and expose their dynamics and intrinsic negotiations.

Las mujeres y los estudios del libro y la edición en Iberoamérica Marina Garone Gravier, 2023-11-22 ¿Desde cuándo es posible hablar de mujeres en el mundo del libro? ¿Cómo la historia del libro latinoamericano ha narrado —o no— los aportes que ellas han hecho en el ámbito editorial? Durante siglos, las impresoras, editoras, tipógrafas, encuadernadoras y librerías han sido invisibilizadas o relegadas en los estudios sobre la edición. Esta obra, que reúne los trabajos de veintiocho investigadoras de distintas disciplinas, aborda casos, panoramas, problemas, metodologías y fuentes documentales, con el fin de valorar los diversos aspectos del papel que han tenido las mujeres en el mundo del libro en Argentina, Brasil, Chile, Colombia, España, Guatemala, México, Perú, República Dominicana y Uruguay, entre los siglos XVII y XXI. En el marco de este campo, aún reciente y poco explorado, Las mujeres y los estudios del libro y la edición en Iberoamérica establece una línea de investigación con la que se espera incentivar futuras historias del libro y la edición de Latinoamérica, en las que, de forma articulada y sistemática, las voces de las mujeres sean incluidas, visibilizadas e iluminadas.

Literary Landscapes of Time Jobst Welge, Juliane Tauchnitz, 2022-11-07 The volume asks how the literatures of the Americas and the Caribbean present multiple or internally differentiated spaces and how these are distinguished or traversed by different temporalities. The historical and (post)colonial experiences of these areas turn them into especially fertile ground for the exploration of the connections between landscape/geography and historical/temporal palimpsests as well as the specificities of literary form. The contributions are dedicated to individual, yet conceptually interconnected studies of staggered, multiple, non-simultaneous temporalities in modern and contemporary literature. The volume adopts a comparative perspective throughout and intends to foster the dialogue between the study of Latin/American and Caribbean literatures—in Spanish, Portuguese, French, and English. Therefore, the individual essays are not grouped according to geographical or linguistic areas, but follow a trajectory from spatiotemporal constellations of the 19th century to ruined/catastrophic landscapes and the geopoetic inscriptions of time in regions. The essays should appeal to all readers interested in World Literature, Hemispheric Studies as well as temporal approaches to space and geography.

The Routledge Hispanic Studies Companion to Nineteenth-Century Latin America Agnes Lugo-Ortiz, Graciela Montaldo, 2024-10-29 The Routledge Hispanic Studies Companion to Nineteenth-Century Latin America provides a unique, comprehensive, and critical overview of Latin American studies in the nineteenth century, including the major regions and subfields. The essays in this collection offer a complex, yet accessible transdisciplinary overview of the heterogeneous and asynchronous historical, political, and cultural processes that account for the becoming of Latin America in the nineteenth century—from Mexico and the Caribbean Basin to the Southern Cone. The thematic division of the book into six parts allows for a better understanding of the ways in which different themes are interrelated and affords readers the opportunity to draw their own connections among subfields. The volume assembles a robust sample of recent and innovative scholarship on the subject, reformulating from fresh perspectives commonly held views on the issues that characterized the era. Additionally, it provides an overarching analysis of the field and introduces cutting-edge concepts all within one expansive volume, opening the dialogue about topics that share common denominators and modeling how those topics can be approached from a variety of perspectives. The innovative volume will be of interest to students and scholars of Latin American studies and Spanish studies. Readers unfamiliar with the period will acquire a comprehensive view of its complexities, while specialists will discover new interpretations and archives.

The Comic Book Western Christopher Conway, Antoinette Sol, 2022-06 2023 Ray and Pat Browne Award for Best Edited Collection in Popular and American Culture One of the greatest untold stories about the globalization of the Western is the key role of comics. Few American cultural exports have been as successful globally as the Western, a phenomenon commonly attributed to the widespread circulation of fiction, film, and television. The Comic Book Western centers comics in the Western's international success. Even as readers consumed translations of American comic book Westerns, they fell in love with local ones that became national or international sensations. These essays reveal the unexpected cross-pollinations that allowed the Western to emerge from and speak to a wide range of historical and cultural contexts, including Spanish and Italian fascism, Polish historical memory, the ideology of shōjo manga from Japan, British post-apocalypticism and the gothic, race and identity in Canada, Mexican gender politics, French critiques of manifest destiny, and gaucho nationalism in Argentina. The vibrant themes uncovered in The Comic Book Western teach us that international comic book Westerns are not hollow imitations but complex and aesthetically powerful statements about identity, culture, and politics.

¿Para qué sirve leer novelas? Alejandra Laera, 2024-08-01 ¿Para qué sirve leer novelas? recupera la potencia de la ficción para comprender el mundo que habitamos y activar prácticas de vida una vez que cerramos los libros. Alejandra Laera elige un conjunto de novelas argentinas del siglo xxi y explora sus conexiones con el capitalismo contemporáneo. En medio de una crisis de alcance global que se profundiza en las economías regionales, aumenta la precarización laboral y provoca amenazas socioambientales, ciertas novelas despliegan una imaginación narrativa amplia y diversa, cuyos protagonistas siempre buscan desafiar, resistir o lidiar con las asechanzas y las dificultades que se les presentan una y otra vez. Organizado alrededor del dinero, el trabajo y el tiempo, este libro trama una lectura original que va de los diarios novelados de Ricardo Piglia o Alan Pauls al anticapitalismo novelesco de María Sonia Cristoff; de los dilemas de los escritores ante el mercado narrados por Sergio Bizzio o Juan Becerra a los juegos temporales de Samanta Schweblin y Gabriela Cabezón Cámara; todo con el fin de reconquistar para el presente una magia perdida por medio de la ficción. La autora se pregunta: Ante la desazón o el enceguecimiento frente al capitalismo, ¿qué puede tener para decirnos la literatura?. El libro indaga este interrogante y sondea las propuestas narrativas que conectan críticamente a la novela con el descarnado capitalismo a través de la imaginación.

El siglo XIX en la narrativa argentina reciente Barbara Jaroszk, 2025-04-03 Why does the Argentinian narrative of the early 21st century return so insistently to the 19th century, the country's founding era? Why does it focus so intensely on the political agency of the popular sectors – the people? How do the dozens of literary texts analysed in this book represent the relationship between the people and the elites in early Argentinian history? How do they engage in dialogue with its earlier visions? This book seeks to answer these questions, proposing that the prominence of these themes in recent Argentinian culture is closely tied to increasing social inequalities and the resurgence of (anti)populist movements in the contemporary world. ¿Por qué la narrativa argentina de principios del siglo XXI vuelve con tanta insistencia al siglo XIX, la época fundacional del país? ¿Por qué centra su interés en la agencia política de “los de abajo”? ¿De qué manera las decenas de textos literarios comentados en este libro representan las relaciones entre el pueblo y las élites de turno a lo largo de la historia argentina? ¿Cómo reescriben sus versiones ya existentes? Este libro trata de responder a todas las preguntas formuladas arriba planteando que la fuerte presencia de dichos temas en la cultura argentina reciente tiene mucho que ver con las crecientes desigualdades y la fuerte reemergencia de (anti)populismos que se observan hoy no solo en la Argentina.

El cuerpo (re) escrito Susanna Regazzoni, 2021-05-12 En El cuerpo (re) escrito. Autoras argentinas del siglo XXI, Susanna Regazzoni propone una lectura crítica de algunas autoras argentinas mediante el relato del cuerpo femenino como objeto privilegiado de escritura para afirmar una nueva visión de la persona. Un cuerpo que, víctima de los modelos y controles de una sociedad patriarcal, está a menudo marcado por una relación de violencia. A partir de Alfonsina Storni, que es una presencia, a pesar de la distancia temporal, muy actual y que encabeza simbólicamente el grupo de escritoras estudiadas, se profundiza en una serie de nombres –Luisa Valenzuela, Sylvia Molloy, María Moreno, Gabriela Masssuh, Gabriela Cabezón Cámara, Pía Bouzas, Selva Almada, Jimena Néspolo y Samantha Schweblin– que, de alguna forma, integran lo que la crítica ha señalado como un nuevo boom de escritoras latinoamericanas. Los textos analizados comunican una crisis identitaria relacionada con una explotación de la marginalidad donde resalta el imperio del realismo cotidiano; este realismo se aproxima sin llegar a colmar la experiencia desnuda del sufrimiento y el dolor. Se trata de novelas y relatos que, a veces, logran una escritura que puede evocar estos sufrimientos y ofrecer un significado que remite a una difícil verdad. En fin, “una lectura de la violencia sobre los cuerpos –como señala Enrique Foffani en las palabras de presentación– como si estas narraciones conformaran el pentimento de la literatura argentina: porque ella es, en su sustancial indefinibilidad, un cuerpo re-escrito en el eterno retorno del escribir”.

Los archivos II Juan José Mendoza, 2025-03-20 Los Archivos II es una teoría de la cultura. De ninguna manera se lo podría considerar como una más de las tantas reflexiones que hay sobre la idea de archivo y el acto de archivar. Todo eso también lo tiene, pero la noción de archivo está ampliada aquí, aparece como el modelo de rastreo de una historia cultural compleja. Y aparece un abanico de situaciones que están tratadas, en primer lugar, con una gran escritura. El libro se sostiene con una escritura precisa, económicamente bella. Es el libro de un escritor... si es que podemos sacar alguna conclusión de este raro y extraordinario libro. Horacio González
