What is the proper way to use "ones" or "one's" this word in ... "Ones" is merely the plural of "one." This is the usage you are looking for here. In English, "one" can sometimes be used to indicate individual units of something. Here are some examples. I've put in square brackets a translation of what "one" means in each instance: They are the ones [the specific people] who bought the house. In one's hands vs At one's hands vs On one's hands (Difference) What is the difference between having something "in one's hands", "at one's hands", and "on one's hands." I am talking about the physical presence of something. Examples: My phone is in my ha...
